TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Idaho, from Liverpool, brings one thou-and ninety-six immigrants.

Clifton and other suburban towns adjacent to Cincinnati, have voted in favor of annexation.

The Craig-Sprague breach of promise case is to come up again, a new trial having been granted.

Signor Rossi, an Italian portrait painter at Cincinnati, was fatally burned from filling a lamp while burning, yesterday.

General Jordan, has issued an appeal to the ladies of New York to send clothing to the women and children of Cuba, who, he says, are well nigh naked.

It is said that Tom Allen, in addition to being whipped in the recent fight, lost all his money. He now offers to fight any man in this country for $300 to $500 a side, except Mace and John C. Heenan.

The coroner's jury on the accident at Eureka, Missouri, report that it was caused by the culpable negligence of the conductor and engineer of the extra freight train, and orders for their arrest have been issued.

The House Committee on Military Affairs have agreed to report a bill for the equalization of bounties, which gives $9 33 1/3 per month to each soldier for every month of service, deducting the amount of bounties previously received under the former acts of Congress.

Gen. Pope has received dispatches from Gen. Woods, stating that he has sent two troops of cavalry in pursuit of the Indians who attacked a working party on the Kansas Pacific Railroad last Saturday. It is not known where the Indians came from or what tribe they belonged to, but they went north after the attack, taking about three hundred head of stock with them. They were about two hundred strong.

In the Senate, yesterday, the bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad from the Western boundary of Minnesota at the junction of the Sioux Wood River, with the Red River of the North, to the Winnipeg district of British America, was passed. The bill to enforce the fifteenth amendment was discussed at great length, without final action.—In the House, several new bills were introduced. Mr. Cox offered a resolution instructing the Reconstruction Committee to report forthwith the bill for general amnesty, and moved the previous question.

The House refused to second it—51 to 78. Mr.

Randall, in order to obtain a vote on the proposition, moved to lay the resolution on the table—yeas 86, nays 86. It was referred to the Reconstruction Committee. After some debate, all prior orders, including the tariff bill, were postponed until the appropriation bills should be disposed of. The rules were suspended, and the House passed the bill to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union who have hitherto been denied that right on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

A Singular Lock.

A mechanic in Savannah has invented a new lock, which is not only a beautiful piece of mechanism, but so constructed that you may even lose your keys with perfect impunity.

There is a series of keys, two of each kind exactly corresponding. Say you have a lock with four, which is the smallest number. A merchant carries one in his pocket. By accident, though, one becomes lost, all you have to do is to lay aside the others, take out one of your reserved keys which, take out construction from the first, unlock the door, which when locked again by the same key, can not be reopened by the last one, and you are safe against the thief or thief. The second key changes the gearing of the lock and renders the first useless, and so on to almost any number of keys, all that preceded the last one being useless, until the original gearing is restored.

Bonner's Past Horses.

Bonner is reported to have spent nearly $200,000 since he was bitten by mania for "fast ones." The price paid for the most noted horses was as follows: Pocahontas, $50,000;

Dexter, $33,000; Major Winslow, $20,000;

Lantern and Light, $10,000; Flatbush Maid,

$3,500; the Auburn Horse, $13,000; Joe Elliott, a colt now owned by him, and expected to beat Dexter, cost $10,000.

England.

LONDON, May 17.—The controversy between Ashbury and the umpires regarding the second race is generally thought to be unfavorable to the former. It is considered that he has no warrant for resisting the decision of the umpire and referee, after starting for the race.

The wind at the time of the start was blowing half a gale. The Sappho, Dantless and Guinevere were the only vessels which ventured outside and proved their seaworthiness.

It was shown that the American vessels are able to sail well in the roughest weather on the Channel.

Douglas telegraphs as follows:

"The Sappho having been twice directed to go around Cherbourg Breakwater, did so. I claim the cup."

To this Ashbury protests.

France.

PARIS, May 17.—The French government has officially notified Greece that if her brigands capture Frenchmen Greece must pay their ransom.

Italy.

FLORENCE, May 17.—The entire reduction and submission of the Neapolitan Insurgents, is reported at the war office this morning.

ROME, May 17.—The canonization of Christopher Columbus is contemplated.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, May 17.—General J. Egbert, the Fenian filibuster and commander of the South Carolina slave ship Wanderer, and a brilliant soldier of the Federal army during the late war, died in this city yesterday.

The proceedings in connection with the contested will of Richard Addington, deceased, who, upon his death, devised his property to the Cooper Union, were concluded yesterday before Judge Hutchings, the respective counsels summing up the case. The Surrogate reserved his decision.

There were several cases of sunstroke yesterday.

To-morrow the Hudson River Amateur

Boating Association, comprising clubs along the river bank from this city to Troy assemble, for the annual review before the fleets of Commodore Benj. F. Brady. The programme embraces besides the review a single race open to every club, after which the association will sit down to the annual dinner.

Tom Allen, who signs himself Champion of America, by permission of James Mace, Champion of the World, has issued a challenge to all professional bruisers, except Mace and Heenan, to fight for five thousand dollars or less. He is particularly anxious that Coburn shall accept. Mr. Allen admits the defeat he received at the hands of his antagonist near

New Orleans.

The day opened bright and beautiful, and voting began early, with indications that a large vote would be polled, but it suddenly changed to rain, and now very few persons are about the polls.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—There was quite a commotion among the members of the press here yesterday, on account of the President calling a special session of the Cabinet. A war with Spain, trouble with the Fenians, the Indian question, the probable resignation of Secretary

Fish, that gentleman being absent from the city, and a thousand other reasons were assigned. The President, however, settled all surmises on the subject by stating that he was to be a lunch party given by Mrs. Grant to-day at half past one o'clock, and he desired to attend and to give the Cabinet officers, with their families, the same opportunity.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—Hickcox & Shears, bankers, were victimized out of $10,000 on an erased check. The perpetrators were arrested and a portion of the money recovered.

The rascals are from New York.

In the billiard match, yesterday, Mott and Little tied. They play again to-night, the winner to take the Championship Pacific Coast

Silver Cup. McGuffey challenged the champion.

Wonderful Memories.

Some examples of the marvels of memory would seem entirely incredible, had they not been given to us upon the highest authority.

Cyrus knew the name of every soldier in his army. It is also related of Themistocles, that he could call by name every citizen of Athens, although the number amounted to twenty thousand. Mithridates, King of Pontus, knew all his eighty thousand soldiers by their right names. Scipio knew all the inhabitants of Rome. Seneca complained of old age because he could not, as formerly, repeat two thousand names in the order in which they were read to him; and he stated that on one occasion, when at his studies, two hundred unconnected verses having been recited by the different pupils of his preceptor, he repeated them in a reversed order, proceeding from the last to the first.

Lord Granville could repeat, from beginning to end, the New Testament, in the original Greek. Cook, the tragedian, is said to have committed to memory all the contents of a daily newspaper. Racine could recite all the tragedies of Euripides.

It is said that George III never forgot a face he had once seen—not a name, he had heard.

Mirandola would commit to memory the contents of a book by reading it three times, and could frequently repeat the words backward as well as forward. Thomas Cramer, committed to memory, in three months, an entire translation of the Bible. Euler, the mathe-matician, could repeat the Aeneid and whole of Virgil, word for word.

It is said that Bossuet could repeat not only the whole Bible, but all Homer, Virgil and Horace, besides many other works.

Mozart had a wonderful memory of musical sounds. When only fourteen years of age, he went to Rome to assist in the solemnities of Holy Week. Immediately after his arrival he went to the Sistine Chapel to hear the famous Miserere of Allegri. Being aware that it was forbidden to take or give a copy of this renowned piece of music, Mozart placed himself in a corner and gave the strictest attention to the music, and on leaving the church noted down the entire piece. A few days afterward he heard it a second time, and following the music with his own copy in his hand, satisfied himself of the fidelity of his memory. The next day he sang the Miserere at a concert, accompanying himself on the harpicord, and the performance produced such a sensation in Rome that Pope Clement

XIV requested that this musical prodigy should be presented to him at once.—[Oliver

Optic's Magazine.]

A Blow at One of the Chicago Pet Industries.

Mr. Browning offered a provision for the new Constitution yesterday, prescribing that adultery shall be the only ground for divorce.

Of course this provision has sent consternation into the ranks of a large and prosperous branch of industry in Chicago. Indeed, it seems to be the aim of country members in the Constitutional Convention to ruin the business of this city by every means in their power. We have already in these columns indicated the different gradations of the divorce market of Chicago, quoting the regular prices of the different grades, a "common article" still remaining unchanged at a dollar and $5. That Mr. Browning should have the hardihood to strike a blow at this lucrative traffic, and drive the dealers thereof off the streets fairly taking the food out of their mouths, and completely crippling one of Chicago's most productive industries, is a blow at the city, by the country, which can never be forgiven, and never shall be.

We insist that not only shall the present divide industry of Chicago be left unsc
